Special Cleaning, Care and Maintenance Products

Brilliant ideas

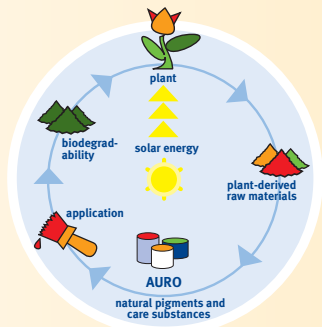

for furniture, floors, kitchens, bathrooms...

In order to keep their household hygienic and bacteria-free, many people use hard, aggressive cleaning agents. With the wastewater, these cleaners get into the sewage and burden the environment. Households aware of environmental and health problems trust in reliable cleaning and care products that are good for nature and people's health.

Therefore AURO has added to its assortment a new product line consisting of cleaning, care and maintenance products that meet the requirements of environmentally aware households.

Once you have brought yourself to carry out a cleaning job, the choice of the correct cleaning product should meet two requirements: Of course it should be suited for the intended application but, in addition to that, it should be the product that is least harmful to the environment. With the AURO Cleaning, Care and Maintenance range, we offer you a new line of products made of consistently ecological and sustainable raw materials.

Based on AURO's 25 years of know-how as leading producer of innovative, ecological products for your home, our developers have created products that offer solutions for nearly every dirt or maintenance problem around the household. Choose among more than 20 products, from Express power cleaner no. 650 to Oven Cleaner no. 660, from Mould eliminator no. 412 to various cleaners and care products for wood, plastics, tiles, linoleum...

All products are made from pure natural ingredients like citrates, alcohol and various oils. Unlike cleaning agents from producers of conventional, petro-chemical products the AURO Cleaning, Care and Maintenance assortment takes care of the environment as well as your health.
